

Please find below a list of handy websites to aid your child with their learning. You might like to use them when researching new ideas, supporting your child's learning or helping with homework.

All of the websites are child friendly, so your child can explore them easily.

ICT websites

Key Stage 1 and 2

Hectors Word:

https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/5_7/hectorsworld/

Watch Hector and his friends learning how to use their computers safely!

Code it!

<https://studio.code.org/>

Work through the courses to become a whizz at coding with these fun games.

Hour of Code:

<https://code.org/learn/legacy>

Hour of code is a global movement helping millions of students become pro's at coding. Follow the simple videos and complete the challenges to become a confident coder.

Key Stage 1

BBC Bitesize:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/education/subjects/zyhbwmn>

Look through the main strands of the computing curriculum and learn new things through the exciting games, videos and links (Computer Science, Digital Literacy and Information Technology)

CBeebies:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/shows/nina-and-the-neurons>

Help Nina with her exciting experiments. Play science, building, engineering and coding games online, listen with CBeebies Radio and sing along with Nina.

Key Stage 2

BBC Bitesize:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/education/subjects/zvnrq6f>

Look through the main strands of the computing curriculum and learn new things through the exciting games, videos and links (Computer Science, Digital Literacy and Information Technology)